Re: United States v. Felix Sater
Case No. 98-1101 (ILG)

Dear Judge Glasser:

I write to request the Court's permission to allow Felix Sater, my client in the above-referenced action, to travel to Charlotte, North Carolina for one day tomorrow, March 5, 1999, departing New York at approximately 8:55 AM and returning to New York at approximately 8:48 PM. While in Charlotte, Mr. Sater will attend a business seminar, as detailed on the attached two page confirmation from Your Office USA in Charlotte.

I apologize for not having made this request earlier, however Mr. Sater's wife was originally going to attend this seminar, but only recently became unable to attend.

I have called Assistant United States Attorney Jonathan Sack to discuss this request, however he has been out of the office. I have left messages for him, as well as for Assistant United States Attorney Alan Vicary. Further, I discussed this matter with FBI Special Agent Leo Taddeo, who has no objection to this request.

Respectfully yours,

Myles H. Malman
